OVERVIEW

Gage Righter is an associate attorney with the firm's Estate Planning and Probate practice groups. He is passionate about helping individuals and families plan for their futures, ensuring their assets are protected and their wishes are honored. Gage understands the complexities of estate planning and is committed to guiding clients through the process with clarity, compassion, and care.

Before transitioning to estate planning, Gage gained extensive experience as a litigation attorney, where he honed his skills in advocating for clients in complex legal matters. His background in litigation has provided him with a strong foundation in resolving disputes, managing intricate legal issues, and approaching challenges from a strategic perspective. This experience uniquely equips him to offer clients comprehensive, forward-thinking solutions to protect their assets and ensure their wishes are fulfilled.
