OVERVIEW

Gage Righter is an associate attorney with the firm's Litigation Group and is relationship-oriented in his work. He values the strength of a community and recognizes the importance of building relationships with clients and with the community at large. As an attorney, Gage is committed to using the law to best serve and assist clients, it's truly his passion in practice. Gage understands the complicated nature of litigation but is passionate about advocating for the needs of clients and walking clients through the litigation process. Prior to joining Critchfield, he served the Columbus community as a legal intern at the Columbus City Attorney's office in the Police Legal division and the Prosecution division. Gage looks for any opportunity to learn something new and find new ways to serve others.
