OVERVIEW

Mary Baker-Shoup is an associate in Critchfield's Millersburg office focusing on estate planning, probate, corporate, and real estate matters. She enjoys building relationships with clients and figuring out the best ways to serve their legal needs. During law school, Mary completed three clinic courses at The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law – mediation, prosecution, and business law. These experiences honed her skills in conflict management and developed her practical skills. She also spent two summers as a clerk prior to joining the firm.
