OVERVIEW

Nathan Baldwin is an associate in Critchfield's Wooster office with a practice focused on litigation. Nathan previously served as a law clerk with the firm while a law student at The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law.

During law school, Nathan served as a judicial extern for Justice Patrick R. DeWine of the Supreme Court of Ohio; participated in moot court and mock trial, including experience competing at the regional level in mediation advocacy, and serving as a Justice on the Moot Court Governing Board; was an editor on law review; and led student organizations.

As a double Buckeye, Nathan earned his undergraduate degree from The Ohio State University Fisher College of Business, where he studied real estate and minored in political science with a focus on elections and foreign policy.
