OVERVIEW

Shannon E. Kreuer is an associate attorney with the firm's Litigation and Employment & Labor groups. She focuses her practice on advising and representing employers in workers' compensation and employment law matters; however, her experience as a seasoned litigator in a variety of fields allows her to assist clients in defending and bringing lawsuits in a wide variety of practice areas.

Shannon is proud to be a part of the Critchfield team and takes to heart the firm's commitment to its clients as well as the community. She brings with her over ten years of litigation experience, including eight years of litigation practice in New York City and across New York State. She has defended and prosecuted all types of litigation cases including personal injury, labor law, workers' compensation, discrimination, breach of contract, and fraud, just to name a few. She has now made Ohio her home and is passionate about using her experience to assist clients throughout the communities served by Critchfield.
