OVERVIEW

Shannon E. Kreuer is a member with the firm’s Litigation and Employment & Labor groups. She focuses her practice on representing and advising employers in workers’ compensation and employment law matters. However, her experience as a seasoned litigator in various fields enables her to assist clients in defending and bringing lawsuits across a wide range of practice areas.

Shannon is proud to be a part of the Critchfield team and takes to heart the firm’s commitment to its clients as well as the community. She has over fifteen years of litigation experience, including eight years of litigation practice in New York City and across New York State. She has defended and prosecuted a wide range of litigation cases, including workers’ compensation, discrimination, class action wage and hour cases, breach of contract, personal injury, labor law, and fraud, among others. She has now made Ohio her home and is passionate about using her experience to assist clients throughout the communities served by Critchfield.
