EDUCATION OVERVIEW

University of Minnesota, J.D., magna cum laude, Moot Court Competition Team, Steve Shrock joined Critchfield in 1997 and has spent his entire career serving clients out of the Millersburg office. Steve focuses his practice on litigation in state and federal courts, both plaintiff and defendant. He has a Bachelor's degree from the College of Wooster, B.A., with honors, Phi Beta Kappa.

ADMISSIONS

member of the firm's leadership team and currently serves on the Critchfield Board.

In addition to his duties on behalf of clients, Steve has served as Chair of the firm's Litigation Department since 2013, where he utilizes a skill set honed over 30 years as a litigator to assist in training and leading others. Steve is known for his sharp analytical mind and bold dedication to his clients. He has tried numerous cases in Southern District of Ohio and argued more than 50 appeals during his career at both the state and federal levels. United States Court of Appeals, Sixth Circuit

Steve understands that even the most complicated and contentious disputes can present opportunities for business solutions. While he is known for being aggressive and effective before judges and juries, he never puts his love of the courtroom ahead of his clients' desires. Whatever the project may entail, individuals and businesses can count on Steve to deliver stand-up advocacy and sound judgment in their critical legal disputes.

- Defended business seller against eight-figure indemnity claims brought by buyer and its insurers following post-sale product recall that spanned periods before and after closing, and pursued counterclaims arising from the sale, as well as related coverage disputes with client's insurer, resulting in global settlement and recovery for client
- Acted as lead counsel in coalition of charitable entities challenging corporate trustee's attempt to modify charitable trust so as to preclude distributions to charities; settled claims and secured disbursement of seven figures (representing vast majority of trust assets) to charities
- Successfully defended business owner against claims for preliminary injunction and TRO based upon alleged copyright infringement in Dunlap Hollow, LLC v. Conn Properties, LLC, resulting in voluntary dismissal of lawsuit

- Counsel in Corban v. Chesapeake Exploration, LLC, the seminal Ohio Supreme Court case regarding the applicability of the Ohio Dormant Minerals Act of 1989 to mineral abandonments.
- Lead counsel in Bilbaran Farm, Inc. v. Bakerwell, Inc., in which the Fifth Appellate District concluded that the firm's client did not have a duty, express or implied, under an oil and gas lease to fully develop the land at issue under the lease. The firm's client was further awarded its attorneys' fees incurred as sanctions for the landowner's pursuit of meritless claims.
- Lead counsel in Sheaffer v. Westfield Ins. Co., which established that under the "law-of-the-case doctrine", the denial of jurisdiction over a discretionary appeal by the Supreme Court of Ohio settles the issue of law appealed, thus affirming a judgment in favor of the firm's client.
