

Litigation

COMMERCIAL LITIGATION

Critchfield's lawyers are equally well-qualified to handle disputes arising out of business transactions and the recovery of insurance proceeds.

We pursue and defend substantial commercial claims involving all types of insurance recovery, including:

- Professional Service Claims
- Mold Claims
- Product Liability Claims
- Construction Defect Claims
- Securities Claims
- Property Loss Claims (fire and water damages)
- Uninsured Motorists Claims
- Underinsured Motorists Claims
- Employment Practices Liability Claims
- Builders' Risk Claims
- Directors' and Officers' Liability Claims

Our attorneys assist clients in the interpretation and evaluation of insurance policy provisions and help them formulate sound insurance coverage positions. We keep current on insurance industry practices and provide thorough, reliable research utilizing on-line and traditional research sources.

At Critchfield, we negotiate with insurance adjusters on behalf of our clients whenever possible in a good-faith effort to avoid time-consuming and stressful litigation. However, our commercial trial lawyers fully scrutinize legal and factual issues when it is necessary to present or defend law suits and will aggressively pursue our client's interests at all levels of the court system, both state and federal.

ATTORNEYSJ. DOUGLAS DRUSHAL*ERIC T. MICHENER*STEVEN J. SHROCK*SAMUEL J. WARDEN