INSURANCE COVERAGE

Critchfield is a trusted partner to our policyholder and insurance company clients when they become embroiled in insurance coverage disputes – handling coverage opinions and analysis, negotiation and settlements options, as well as litigation at both the trial court and appellate levels.

Our attorneys offer experience in a number of areas, including property and casualty matters, construction, and health and disability. As expert case managers, we'll guide you through any coverage disputes, always keeping in mind our clients' business needs, goals, and budget.
